DEMOCRATIC RALLY.

Taylor County People Gather At Campbellville and Hear

Stirring Speeches Delivered by a Number of Prominent Speakers.

A SOBER AND ORDERLY CROWD.

The speaking at Campbellville, last Saturday, had been thoroughly advertised, and early in the forenoon the people from all sections began to arrive in town, and by 12 o'clock fully two thousand untroubled Democrats were upon the streets. The two principal speakers were paraded in the forenoon, five hundred men being upon horseback in the procession, besides several scores of bugles. It was a thrilling sight, testifying that the Democrats of Taylor county were thoroughly aroused and would do their duty on the 6th of November.

Sixteen young ladies, dressed in white and riding gray horses headed the procession, followed by one young lady dressed in yellow and riding a horse.

It was a beautiful picture, the young ladies being admired by both political friend and foe for their handsome appearance. The Taylor county young ladies are noted for their beauty, and to fully appreciate how handsome they really are, you must see them dressed in white, the emblem of innocence, riding gray horses and heading a Democratic procession.

The speaking was at the court-house, a stand having been erected upon the outside, the building being too small to hold the crowd.

Local talent introduced the speakers, and in the forenoon Hon. C. C. McChord and Congressman Dave Smith made telling and forcible speeches. In the afternoon Hon. Ash. G. Caruth, of Louisville, occupied the stand for two and one-half hours, making the speech of the day. He is a sound reasoner and presents his points in such a manner as to impress his hearers with the truthfulness of his assertions.

At the close of Mr. Caruth's speech, Hon. W. P. Thorne, of Henry county, made one of his characteristic talks to the delight of all present. If there was a disturbance during the day it did not come under our observation. For the size of the crowd it was remarkably orderly, a compliment to Campbellville, a compliment to Taylor county.

Last year the Republicans carried Taylor county by about 70 majority, but there is any thing in a demonstration here this year will be in the Democratic column.

A sumptuous dinner was spread upon the ground.

Mr. John Holladay, whose death was recorded in last week's News, died of paralysis of the bowels. He was complaining about one week, but was in bed only two days. His last words were "Let us pray."

Mr. Henry Fulkus has purchased the residence of Mr. Geo. Neil, on Greenway street, known as the Sam Wolford property. The transfer includes one and one eighth acre of ground with the dwelling. Price, $600.

Linsley Fair, charged with detaining a woman in Adair county, was arrested in Lebanon by Chief of Police Nat. Wilkerson, last Friday and brought to Columbia and lodged in jail. The offense was committed several months ago.

A letter from Mr. Anderson Holladay states that he has sold all his mules and horses. Mr. John Holladay had sold three up to the time he was taken sick, and his business is now being looked after by Mr. Anderson Holladay.

Dr. W. B. Armstrong writes us follows from Cincinnati: "Politics are at high ebb here, and every thing points to Bryan's election. Unless there is a barrel of money in this State, Ohio will be found in the Democratic column."

Mr. J. W. Coffey, who has been suffering a great deal with one of his hands for several weeks is still in a precarious condition. Her hand and arm up to the elbow is swollen and very painful, while the arm above the elbow is paralytic. All this came from a small burn on the hand. It seems that medicines will do no good and it is likely that her arm will have to be amputated.

Last week Miss Anna and Highy McCaffery were driving their team buggy horse and for some cause known by both parties, upsetting the buggy in which they were riding. The buggy was badly damaged and the horses were hurt.

The following is from the Elizabethtown News, but as it is applicable in all communities afflicted with windy Christs, we reproduce it. A minister of the gospel was once very much disturbed by a member of his congregation who kept interrupting his sermon with Amen and other devout ejaculations. Finally it got so strong that the preacher asked an officer of the church to speak to the brother and see if he could not quiet him. He did so and after that he was as silent as the tomb.

After the service the minister asked the officer of the church what he said to the brother that caused him to suddenly to lose his fervor. The officer said I asked him for $5 for the church. "This little incident illustrates the conduct of a great many people in a great many things. They are generally the loudest people to talk and are great enthusiasts until you ask them for money."

The Home Board of New York has written the Trustees of the Columbia M. & F. High School that it will not send a teacher here this school year. Prof. A. H. Ballard, who is giving entire satisfaction, will remain at the head of the institution. It was not the intention of the Board to remove Prof. Ballard in any event, as he is a valuable teacher, liked by both patrons and pupils. If the Board had sent a man, under the arrangement, he would have been in charge, but his duties would not in anywise have interfered with Prof. Ballard. Under the present management the school is flourishing, and parents are advised to send their sons and daughters as quickly as possible in order that they may get the full benefit of the remainder of this school year. Seventy-eight pupils are now on the roll.

Rev. John G. Huber, pastor of a layman, C. C. congregation of United Brethren, preached to a large congregation at the Methodist church, in Oak Grove, last Sunday night. His subject was "The Twelve Gates Entering into the Heavenly Home." It was the most interesting discourse delivered in Columbia for many months. His descriptive powers are grand, and in describing the heavenly home you could almost see the golden gates, standing ajar, and the children of God passing into the New Jerusalem.

Last week Mr. Robt. Williams, one of the largest and most progressive farmers in the Danville section, lost by fire, a barn together with 125 barrels of corn, 20,000 pounds of hay, 8 or 10 head of mules and horses and farm machinery. Mr. Ed Pelly had 2 mules lost by a barn that burned. The loss is heavy and no insurance. This is the second barn that has been burned for Mr. Williams. Blood hounds ought to be kept by every county in the State.

The Kentucky Conference of the United Brethren church was in session at Glenville Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Rev. Huber representing Bishop Holt. His work and preaching were highly received and appreciated. Preachers were stationed as follows: Rev. J. Dean, P. E. Glenville, Chas. B. Dean, Albany, A. R. Blakey, Wilkes Creek, W. M. Dickie, Edmonston, T. J. Gibson; Liberty and Casey county, Thos. Hadley and S. E. Norman.

Mr. Jesse White, this city, received letter from his son, Mont, who is in the Philippines, a few days ago. Mont stated that he had been in the hospital at Manila since the 19 day of August. It was improving. His letter was dated September 17. He said that but little fighting had been done on the island for some time, and thought his regiment would leave for the States not later than January.

Mrs. J. W. Coffey, who has been suffering a great deal with one of her hands for several weeks is still in a precarious condition. Her hand and arm up to the elbow is swollen and very painful, while the arm above the elbow is paralytic. All this came from a small burn on the hand. ## FONT HILL.

Mr. Editor:—As it has been a long time since I contributed to the columns of your highly prized paper, I will again undertake to write you a short letter.

I am always glad to see a copy of "The Adair County News." It affords me great pleasure to peruse its pages, for I am always confident of finding it advocating true Democracy. Since its existence it has been a friend of the people, a lover of law and order, and loyal to its party. The News has many friends in this county, and there are many who congratulate the editor for his able and wise editorials.

I wish to state that I am still a Jeffersonian-Bryan Democrat as in past days, and there are many whose enthusiasm is causing them to be very anxious for the success of W. J. Bryan and Kentucky's honored Governor, J. C. W. Beckham.

The Democrats of Webb's precinct, Russell county, organized a Democratic club at Font Hill and honored it with the worthy name of the Bryan-Beckham Club. The first meeting was held on Saturday night, October 6, with a membership of 37. Since then, or up to October 20th, the club has grown to 164, and it will, in all probability, reach 225 by our next meeting. We believe that we will have the honor of enrolling more members for the Democratic ticket than any other club in the county. We are glad to say that we heartily endorse both State and National platforms. We are beginning to get our eyes open as to what Republican misrule is doing, and has done, not only in the State but in the nation. We cherish the hope and firmly believe that William Jennings Bryan will be elected to preside over the affairs of the nation and that J. C. W. Beckham will be the chief magistrate of the State.

We can not close this letter without saying that "Civil Liberty" is being proclaimed from the houseposts by the Republicans, and that W. S. Taylor, the poor exile, as his co-workers term him, occupies the upmost spot in their hearts. Out of the mouth of a prominent Republican of Russell county came this statement: "If we believe that W. S. Taylor is as pure a man as Kentucky ever afforded." Is there another man who can conscientiously say that in Kentucky? Surely not. A man who is guilty of treason and is a fugitive from justice is a disgrace to this grand old Commonwealth.

Hoping the News the greatest possible success, I remain, your true Democrat.

THOMAS H. TUTT

Was born April 8, 1825, at Scottsville, Allen county, Ky.; died October 15, 1900, at his late home in Milltown, Adair county, being 75 years and 6 months old. He came to Adair county when a boy. Reaching manhood he married Miss Susan Mercer, who survives him. He was afflicted for forty years which he bore with Christian resignation. He was a member of the Church of Christ for 45 years. His funeral services were conducted by F. O. Shaefer. At the close of the discourse the Masonic Fraternity took charge of the corpse and interred it with Masonic honors. A large assemblage present.

F. C. S.

During the winter of 1897 Mr. James Reed, one of the leading citizens and merchants of Clay, Clay Co., W. Va., struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whiskey in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by M. Cravens.

I place the philosophy of Franklin against the sordid doctrine of those who would put a price upon the head of an American soldier and justify a war of conquest upon the group that it will pay. The Democratic party is in favor of the expansion of trade. It would extend our trade by every legitimate and peaceful means, but it is not willing to make merchandise of human blood.

W. J. Walton has written for the Interior Journal to Walton.

"Work, You Terriers, Work!"

The "prosperity" racket makes the sensible and educated working-men exceedingly angry, because it is a silly lie, manufactured by the Republican leaders. There is no prosperity. Do not be deceived by the smoke rolling from the smokestacks of the smelters and steel works, for the noxious fumes only prove that behind the gates are crowds of white slaves one hundred per cent. worse off than were the blacks before the war. The workmen get the smoke, dust, discomforts and a legally pitiable. The bondholders and holders of preferred stocks get the big profits derived from the ill-paid toil of the workers.

The Republicans seem to think that work is all that any man needs. "Work, you terriers, work!" while the silk stockings—the like-to-be aristocrats, the imperialists—take eighteen-twentieths of the wealth created by the workers. "Work, you terriers, work! Work, work, work!" Ten to twelve hours per day, rain or shine, hot or cold; never a vacation, never a rest. "Be contented," cry the Republicans. "Don't expect decent wages, because that would cut down the enormous profits of the trust people, who are putting up campaign funds and assisting in the prosperity yell." Besides, it would prevent them from buying up the press and the pulpit, which would be awfully bad for the prosperity of journalistic prostitutes and canting Bible bangers.

As Mark Hanna says: "Work 'em, pay 'em as little as possible, and if the d—n brutes kick and strike, call out the militia and deputize and shoot submission into 'em. We are the fellows that give the dogs work, and if the ungrateful hounds don't like the wages, let 'em go to hell." Thus spoke Mark Hanna to a coterie of admiring friends in a Pullman smoking room five years ago. Coarse and profane frankness that gives a coarse, profane and gross libel on the handiwork of God.

A working man who supports a party managed by such a brutal bully as Mark Hanna deserves the rawhide lash. Let it be well applied to the fawning, cringing sneaks. In the interest of good service let the whipcord cut around the naked legs of the—the thing! Some things, some materials, walking around wearing overalls are like mongrel dogs (no desire to hurt the feelings of the canine) and love the toe that boots them and the hand that strikes them. "Work, you terriers, work! Cringe, you crawling crimps!" —Pablo Picasso.

Our Sulu Slaves.

Mr. Bryan has succeeded, by means of his answer to Assistant Secretary McKeljohn on the Sulu treaty, in drawing from the Republican press and from Mr. McKeljohn himself, the unqualified admission that the thirteenth amendment to the Constitution applies to the Sulu Islands. These authorities point to the fact that this amendment declares that neither slavery nor involuntary servitude "shall exist within the United States or any place subject to their jurisdiction," as proof that the President could not have confirmed the slavery provision of the Bates treaty.

We are glad the wording of the amendment has finally forced itself upon the Republican consciousness. It has been hammered in often enough by Democrats. But now that our Republican contemporaries are willing to recognize the existence of the thirteenth amendment, let us ask them to think a little harder. The amendment does not say that the President shall not make a treaty recognizing slavery. It says that slavery shall not "exist within the United States or any place subject to their jurisdiction."

There are only two questions to be asked, therefore: 1. Are the Sulu Islands subject to the jurisdiction of the United States? The Republicans themselves admit that they are. 2. Does slavery exist in the Sulu Islands? Unquestionably it does.

That makes the case complete. The McKinley Administration is convicted out of the mouths of its own friends of violating a solemn prohibition put into the Constitution by the Republican party itself.
